

You

I'm better for having met you,
Of that I have no doubt.
It really doesn't take long
To figure that one out.
That safe space,
Your kind face,
In fact a mix of the two.
The stories shared,
Knowing you care,
The way you do what you do.
I'm better for having met you,
I've known that for a while.
I guess it's why I hear your name
And cannot help but smile.
